

Round 3 Frequently Asked Questions (Session 2026-27)

BAMS / BHMS / BUMS / BNYS, State Quota & NRI Quota

A. Registration and Choice Filling

1. Who can register and fill choices in Round 3?

New candidates must register and then fill choices. Previously registered candidates do not register again, but may fill choices for Round 3 (this includes candidates who wish to upgrade).

2. What are the dates for registration and choice filling?

From 22.10.2026 to 26.10.2026. Payment facility is available up to 7:00 PM on 26.10.2026, and choice filling with auto-locking closes at 11:59 PM on 26.10.2026.

3. I want to upgrade in Round 3. Do my earlier choices carry over?

No. Candidates seeking upgradation must fill fresh choices, and only after carefully reading the Information Booklet.

4. Can I change my choices later if I made a mistake or decide not to upgrade?

No. Requests for changes, including mistaken choices or a decision not to upgrade or retain the previous college, will not be considered.

5. How do I make sure my choices are saved?

Click the “Save” button to securely store your selections, and take a printout of the saved confirmation for further communication before leaving the website. Any unsaved changes will be lost.

7. I was allotted a seat up to Round 3 of the All-India Quota by AACCC and declared ineligible. Can I take part in State Quota counselling?

No. Such candidates are not permitted to participate in State Quota counselling, and their filled State Quota choices will be removed.

Such candidate`s list of ineligible candidates received from AACCC will be published on the website in due course.

B. Reporting Basics

8. I have been allotted a seat in Round 3. What should I do next?

Download your Round 3 Allotment Letter from the official portal. Then report in person at the Counselling Board office on your scheduled date with all required documents and fee.

09. When and where do I report?

- Time: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM
- Venue: UG/PG AYUSH Counselling Board, AYUSH BHAWAN, Room No. 214, Sector 26, Pratap Nagar, Jaipur

Date	Who reports
02.11.2026 (Monday)	All upgraded candidates and Freshly allotted BAMS / BHMS / BUMS candidates
03.11.2026 (Tuesday)	All BNYS candidates
04.11.2026 (Wednesday)	Any remaining candidates of 02.11.2026 and 03.11.2026

10. Can I report online or send someone on my behalf?

No. Reporting must be done in person at the Counselling Board office.

12. What documents and fee should I bring?

- Original documents, along with one set of self-attested photocopies
- Two printouts of the application form
- Demand Draft of the prescribed remaining college fee as per the fee structure

13. In whose favour should the Demand Draft be made?

“CHAIRMAN AYUSH UG ADMISSION COUNSELLING BOARD, JAIPUR”

C. Upgraded Candidates

14. What should an upgraded candidate bring?

- Previous Round Allotment Letter
- Fee receipt of the Previous Round
- The difference amount of fee, if any
- Two printouts of the application form

15. What happens if I am an upgraded candidate and do not report?

Candidates upgraded in Round 3 and allotted a new college must report in person on the prescribed date. As in Round 2, failure to report results in cancellation of the allotted seat and may also affect the previously allotted seat and the fee paid. Please confirm the exact consequences in the Information Booklet.

D. After Reporting

16. What do I do after reporting at the Counselling Board?

You must join the allotted college in person within three (3) working days of reporting.

E. Consequences of Non-Reporting

17. What happens if I do not report on my scheduled date?

Your allotted seat will be automatically cancelled. Non-appearance on the due date results in cancellation.

18. What happens if I report but do not bring all the required documents or fee?

Failure to comply with the reporting requirements will lead to cancellation of the allotted seat.

19. Will I lose my counselling fee if I do not report?

Yes. If you do not report on the scheduled date in the Second or any later round, or if you leave or surrender the allotted seat, the counselling fee/ security amount will be forfeited.

20. What if my documents or information are found to be false?

At any stage, if the application information or any certificate or document is found false or incorrect:

- The Counselling Board may cancel your candidature.
- The entire fee deposited will be forfeited.
- Legal action may be initiated against you.
