HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SAMEER JAIN

Order

23/11/2026

1. The present petition is part of second round of litigation. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that vide order dated 05.11.2026, this Court, after hearing learned Additional Solicitor General (ASG), had passed an order, with consent from both sides, with directions to consider the appeal pending before Respondent No. 2 (First Appellate Authority) within a period of five working days from the date of passing of the order. The counsel also submits that on the very same date, he had immediately filed additional submissions before the Respondent No. 2, which was acknowledged on 06.11.2026. He further submits that in spite of categoric directions from this Court and the appeal, against the impugned orders passed, being pending since the month of September which is a long period of time; the respondents are turning deaf ears to the same and are flouting the orders of this Court. Learned counsel has relied upon a judgment of Delhi High Court which was assailed before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Special Leave to Appeal (C) Nos. 40024/2026 titled Faculty of Ayurveda, Mansarovar Global University vs. National Commission For Indian System of Medicine & Ors., wherein vide order dated 18.11.2026, the petitioner therein was permitted to participate in the ongoing counselling process (stray round), considering that the last date was scheduled for 24.11.2026. Learned counsel also submits that in spite of advance notice and the categoric directions given by this Court, respondents more particularly Respondent No. 2 is not passing appropriate orders.

2. Heard.

3. In the facts and circumstances of the present petition, this Court is inclined to issue short notices to the respondents.

4. On directions of this Court, notices are accepted by Mr. Rakesh Choudhary for the respondent Nos. 1-3.

5. Notices be issued to the remaining respondents.

6. List the matter on 26.11.2026 in the supplementary cause list.

7. In the meantime, the directions given by Hon'ble Apex Court (supra), for petitioner therein to participate in ongoing counselling process (stray round), will be equally applicable qua the present petitioners. However, they should disclose in all correspondences that the present litigation is ongoing, the fate of the candidates will be governed by the same and they are participating at their own cost and risk.
